

OFFICE OF
THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

January 4, 1975

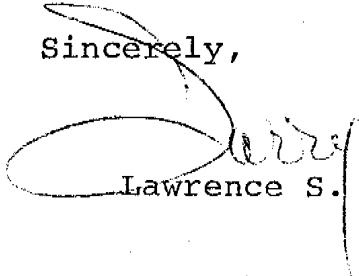

Dear Arnie:

Regarding your letter of December 9, the Secretary has agreed to provide a statement in connection with the publication of the book version of the Report of the Commission on U.S.-Latin American relations.

I am enclosing the statement authorized by the Secretary. It is a slightly revised version of the one you submitted.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Lawrence S. Eagleburger

Enclosure:

As stated.

DRAFT STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY
OF STATE ON THE REPORT:
"THE AMERICAS IN A CHANGING WORLD"

I welcome this important report of the private Commission on U.S.-Latin American Relations, a distinguished group of representative Americans under the chairmanship of Ambassador Sol Linowitz. It reflects a careful assessment of all the significant aspects of those relations. The report also contains a set of specific recommendations which will be of valuable assistance to me in working for an enduring and viable policy within this hemisphere.

The Commission members represent a broad spectrum of experience and professional knowledge. All are outstanding in their respective fields. Many have served under various administrations. I regard the work of the Commission as in the best tradition of the role of the private American citizen and his voluntary contribution to the public interest.

To: S - Mr. Lawrence S. Eagleburger
From: ARA - William D. Rogers

Statement for the Report of the Commission on U.S.-Latin American Relations

On December 19, the Secretary agreed to provide a statement in connection with the book version of the Report of the Commission on U.S.-Latin American Relations (Tab A).

Although he did not so indicate, I am assuming that the Secretary also approved the suggested language for the statement which was attached to my memorandum. Accordingly, I am enclosing a suggested reply from you to Arnold Nachmanoff which provides him with a statement from the Secretary along the lines of my earlier recommendation.

Recommendation:

That you sign the attached (Tab B) reply to Mr. Nachmanoff.
